Auction of Promises

Saturday evening more than 100 villagers packed the village hall for a quiz that coincided with the close of an on-line promise auction which raised £3,000 for both Goostrey Rose Festival and to support the visit of eight children and two teachers from the Elizabethfontein school in the Western Cape, South Africa.

This will be the sixth time since 2004 that pupils from the school have visited Goostrey to take part in the annual Rose Day celebrations.

The children, who will be staying with families in Goostrey, will also be taking part in lessons at Goostrey school and demonstrating crafts, sharing South African playground games and dancing. The school has won numerous dancing competitions throughout the Western Cape and the children will be performing at Rose Day on Saturday 24 June.

The rural Elizabethfontein School, which is a three-and-a-half-hour drive North of Cape Town, has 270 children most of whom board on weekly basis in two huge dormitories.

Chair of the Rose Day committee Christina Burgess said: "Yet again the people of Goostrey have demonstrated how much they appreciate Rose Day by supporting the party, the quiz and the auction in such a big way.

Will you help us to find out please by maybe reading a book in daylight, playing a game, painting, drawing, or playing outside?

Please will you take a picture of the activity you are doing (for our Eco Green Flag evidence) and give it to either your child's class teacher, one of the Eco Team, or email one to mrs.saxton@goostrey.cheshire.sch.uk (after the hour is over of course!)

All children sending in photos will receive 10 housepoints.

We would really appreciate your help. Thank you

TAKING CHILDREN ON HOLIDAY DURING TERM TIME

A guide for parents and carers

Frequently asked questions

Am I entitled to take my child out of school for a family holiday?

- No. Parents have a legal duty to ensure that their children attend school or the alternative provision on a regular basis
- The Education Act 1996 makes it a criminal offence for a parent to “fail to secure their child’s regular attendance at the school”
- The amendments to the 2006 Regulations remove any reference to family holidays, extended leave and the statutory threshold of ten school days.
- The amendments make clear that Head Teachers may not grant any leave of absence (holiday) during term time unless there are exceptional circumstances
- The amendments give parents no entitlement to take their child out of school for a holiday in term time
- The Head Teacher and Governing Body will determine what the exceptional circumstances are

If we decide to take a holiday during term time what should we do?

- The parent/carer with whom the child resides must apply in writing to the school
- The letter/application must explain the exceptional circumstance surrounding the request for the leave of absence

What will the school do then?

- The Head Teacher will determine whether the exceptional circumstance ruling applies, if not the application will be declined
  - Only the Headteacher (or the Deputy) has the power to approve leave of absence applications. When making the decision the protocols and criteria laid down in the school’s attendance policy must be followed.
  - Each academic year, schools inform parents/carers via a letter, newsletter or some other communication; that they may receive a Fixed Penalty Notice if their child has unauthorised absences in term time
- You will receive a written response from the Headteacher (or the Deputy) letting you know if your application has been approved
- If the holiday goes ahead after the application has been declined the absence will be recorded as unauthorised

What will happen if the absence is unauthorised?

- The school will decide if a Penalty Notice should be issued. If the school decide that a Penalty Notice is to be issued
- You will receive a letter from the school advising that it has referred the matter to the Local Authority and that a Penalty Notice may be issued;
- The school will inform the Local Authority that a Penalty Notice needs to be issued
- A Penalty Notice will be sent to you, accompanied by an explanatory letter; the Notice gives you the opportunity to pay a penalty fine instead of being prosecuted in the criminal courts

| Penalties for unauthorised absence |   |  |
|---|---|--|
| Timeline                           | One child  | Two children  |
| Paid within 21 days                       | £60 per parent  | £60 per child = £120 per parent  |
| After 21 days and before 28 days          | £120 per parent   | £120 per child = £240 per parent   |
